Hopping Across Australia

Subtitle.

image

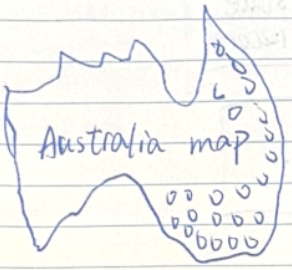

Section 1. Where Do they Live.

Intro

where are kangaroos and wallabies recorded?

SPECIES

species V

legend

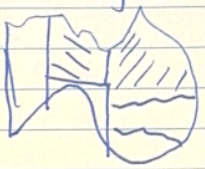

Key take away

Six species, six different state-level footprints.

Red kangaroo

Eastern kangaroo

Western Grey kangaroo

Common Wallaroo

Swamp Wallaby

Red-necked Wallaby

legend.

Eastern species concentrate in NSW

...

South Aus tells a different story.

...

One national map hides regional identities.

...

Section 2 – Different States, Different Species.

Intro . . .

Which species stand out in each state?

Real-k E-G-ks W-G-k G-W S-W R-n-W.

East coast
. . .

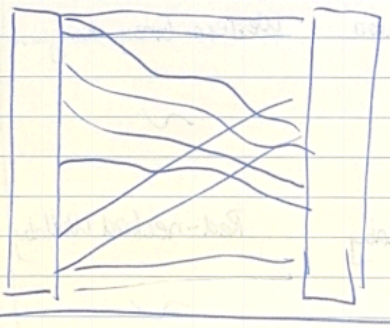

western difference
. . .

TAS
. . .

which species characterise each state?

Intro

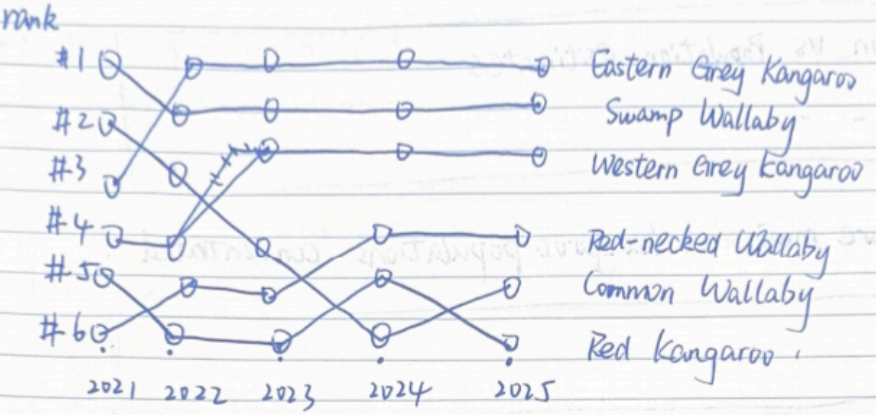

state

Sankey Chart

Which species have risen or fallen in the national ranking?

Intro . . .

Common Wallaby falls back

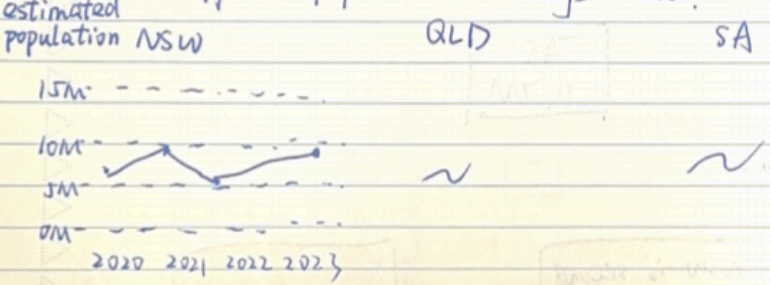

. . .

. . .

Section 3 - From Observations to Population

Intro

What do official population surveys show?

VIC

WA

QLD rises strongly

...

...

Observation vs Population estimates

Where are monitored kangaroo populations concentated ?

Intro

NT
2.7M

QLD
10.7M

WA
5.7M

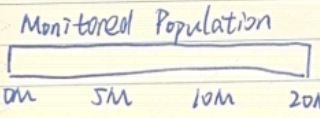

SA
3.2M

NSW
9.6M

ACT
0.3M

VIC
2.9M

TAS
0.7M

QLD dominates

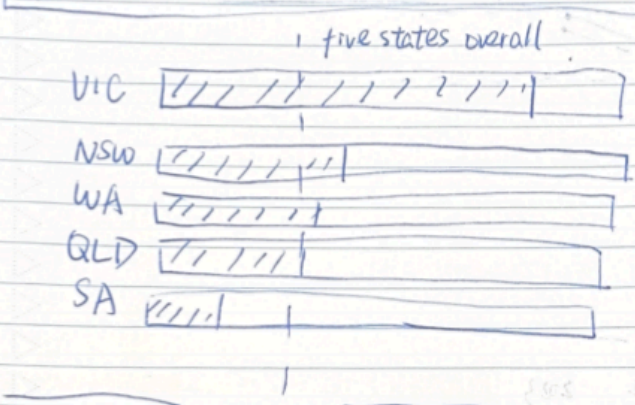

NSW is second

...

Section 4 - From Population to Management.

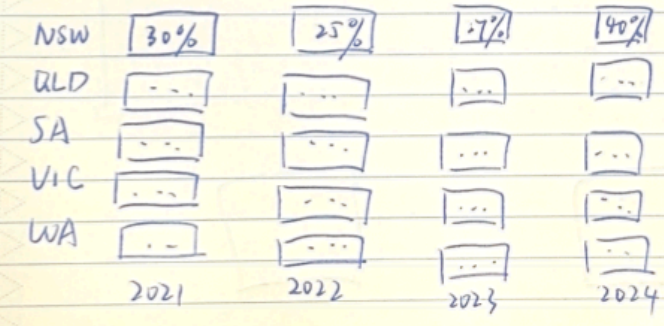

Intro.

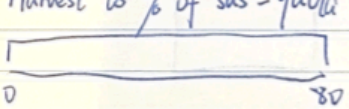

How much of each sustainable quota was harvested?

VIC standout

How consistently do states use their sustainable quotas?

NSW remain highest

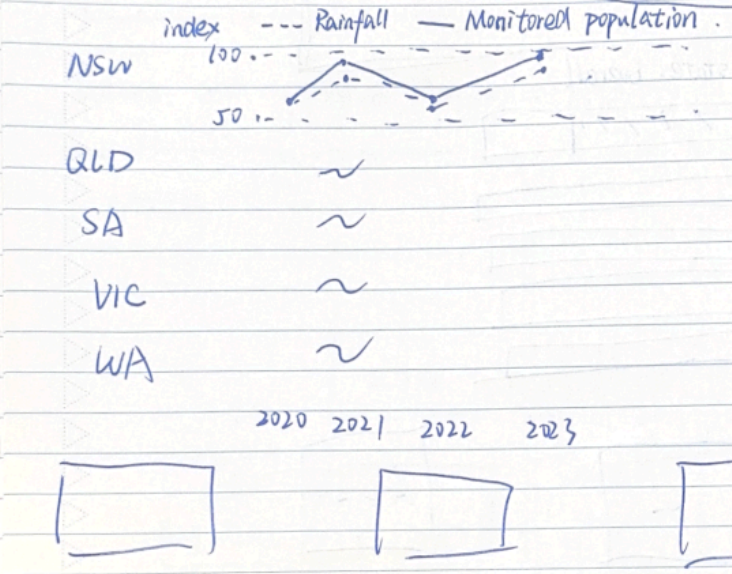

South Aus stay low

Section 5 - Rainfall and Population.

Intro ...

Do population changes move with rainfall?

use index normalised rainfall with population.

Section 6 — Population.

Data sources.